GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Defendant objects to the Discovery Requests insofar as they purport to impose any requirement or discovery obligation upon Defendant other than as set forth in the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Knox County Court of Common Pleas.

2. Defendant objects to the Discovery Requests to the extent that they seek to discover any information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine, and any other applicable restriction upon discovery. Defendant expressly reserves the right to withhold such information without prejudice thereto. Any inadvertent disclosures shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any privilege.

3. These Responses are supplied for use in this lawsuit and for no other purpose and are supplied subject to that limitation. Defendant reserves the right to object on any ground and at any time to the use of Defendant's Responses or the subject matter thereof in this proceeding or any other proceeding.

4. Defendant reserves the right to object on any ground and at any time to other discovery requests or other discovery procedures involving or relating to the subject of the Discovery Requests.

5. Defendant reserves the right to make any changes to these Responses as further information becomes available. By this reservation, Defendant does not, however, assume a continuing responsibility to update its Responses beyond the requirements of the applicable rules and orders of the Court.

6. Defendant objects to the Discovery Requests to the extent that they are cumulative or duplicative.

7. Defendant objects to the Discovery Requests to the extent that they seek to impose on Defendant an obligation to investigate or to discover information or documentary materials from third parties. Defendant will not undertake such an investigation or discovery, nor be responsible for producing information and/or documents in the possession, custody, or control of any other persons or non-parties.

8. Defendant objects to Plaintiff's "Definitions" to the extent that they purport to alter, amend, add to, diminish, or otherwise differ from any definitions or instructions set forth in the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules of the Knox County Court of Common Pleas.

9. Defendant objects to Plaintiff's "Instructions" to the extent that they purport to alter, amend, add to, diminish, or otherwise differ from any requirement or instructions set forth in the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules of the Knox County Court of Common Pleas.

10. Defendant objects to the Discovery Requests to the extent that they require words or phrases to be interpreted in a manner different from or inconsistent with their ordinary and customary meaning.

11. Defendant objects to the definition of "Documents" to the extent that it differs from the requirements set forth in the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules of the Knox County Court of Common Pleas.

12. Defendant incorporates each of these General Objections into the Responses below.

ANSWER: Admit.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 55.

Mullins Bros. never paid an annual inspection fee to the Ohio Division of Water Resources for the land where the Lake and the Dam were located (Knox County Tax Parcel No. 66-09675.162).

ANSWER: Mullins Bros. admits it did not pay an inspection fee to the Ohio Division of Water Resources for the Lake and Dam because no such fee was assessed.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 56.

None of the deeds signed by Mullins Bros. to convey lots in either The Phase VII Development or The Phase VIII Development had a Declaration attached to it when it was recorded with the Knox County Recorder.

ANSWER: Mullins Bros. admits that the deeds conveying lots in Phase VII and VIII did not include a Declaration. Mullins Bros. denies that the Long Defendants were not aware of the Declarations, as the Phase VII and VIII Declarations were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder and each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join a homeowners association tasked with maintaining the Lake and Dam, among other requirements.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 57.

None of the deeds signed by Mullins Bros. to convey lots in either The Phase VII Development or The Phase VIII Development contain any language about the grantee having to pay an annual assessment.

ANSWER: Mullins Bros. admits that the deeds conveying lots in Phase VII and VIII did not include a Declaration. Mullins Bros. denies that the Long Defendants were not aware of this requirement, as the Phase VII and VIII Declarations were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder and each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join a homeowners association, and pay an assessment for maintaining the Lake and Dam, among other requirements.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 58.

None of the deeds signed by Mullins Bros. to convey lots in either The Phase VII Development or The Phase VIII Development contain any language about the grantee having any potential liability for maintenance of a lake or dam.

ANSWER: Mullins Bros. admits that the deeds conveying lots in Phase VII and VIII did not explicit reference to liability. Mullins Bros. denies that the Long Defendants were not aware of the potential for liability, as the Phase VII and VIII Declarations were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder and each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and potential liability for maintenance of the Lake and Dam.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 59.

None of the deeds signed by Mullins Bros. to convey lots in either The Phase VII Development or The Phase VIII Development contain any language about the grantee having to become a member of a non-profit corporation.

ANSWER: Mullins Bros. admits that the deeds conveying lots in Phase VII and VIII did not include language regarding the homeowners association. Mullins Bros. denies that the Long Defendants were not aware of this requirement, as the Phase VII and VIII Declarations were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder and each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join a homeowners association, among other requirements.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 60.

None of the deeds signed by Mullins Bros. to convey lots in either The Phase VII Development or The Phase VIII Development contain any language about the grantee having to pay an annual assessment.

ANSWER: This request is duplicative with Request No. 57. Mullins Bros. admits that the deeds conveying lots in Phase VII and VIII did not include reference to an annual assessment. Mullins Bros. denies that the Long Defendants were not aware of this requirement, as the Phase VII and VIII Declarations were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder and each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join a homeowners association, and pay an assessment for maintaining the Lake and Dam, among other requirements.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 61.

Mullins Bros. does not have in its possession, custody or control any documents related to, touching upon, mentioning, or in any way reflecting any alleged acknowledgement by any of the Landings Defendants about a homeowners association.

ANSWER: Deny. In addition to the Phase VII and VIII Declarations which were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder, each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join a homeowners association, among other requirements.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 62.

Mullins Bros. does not have in its possession, custody or control any documents related to, touching upon, mentioning, or in any way reflecting any alleged acknowledgement by any of the Landings Defendants about a requirement to pay $200 a year.

ANSWER: Deny. In addition to the Phase VII and VIII Declarations which were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder, each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join a homeowners association and pay an annual assessment, among other requirements.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 63.

Mullins Bros. does not have in its possession, custody or control any documents related to, touching upon, mentioning, or in any way reflecting any alleged acknowledgement by any of the Landings Defendants about the Landings Common Area Association, Inc.

ANSWER: Deny. In addition to the Phase VII and VIII Declarations which were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder, each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join “a homeowners association,” which was intended to be the same homeowners association in the Deed Restrictions and established by or at the direction of Mullins Bros.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 64.

Mullins Bros. does not have in its possession, custody or control any documents related to, touching upon, mentioning, or in any way reflecting any alleged acknowledgement by any of the Landings Defendants that the Landings Common Area Association, Inc. shall have the sole and exclusive control of the lake located on the land of the Developer and shall be responsible for its care and maintenance.

ANSWER: Deny. In addition to the Phase VII and VIII Declarations which were properly filed with the Knox County Recorder, each homeowner signed an acknowledgment of the deed restrictions, and the requirement to join “a homeowners association,” which was intended to be the same homeowners association in the Deed Restrictions and established by or at the direction of Mullins Bros. This homeowners association has sole and exclusive control of the lake, and is responsible for its maintenance.
